Teaching, Learning, and Technology Program

EDUCATION MINOR

(15 credits required)

A minor consists of at least 15 credits; the specific content is determined by the department, division, or program concerned. It is the responsibility of students desiring a minor to initiate it no later than the beginning of the junior year by filing a minor program with the department, division, or program where it is offered. The student's minor adviser maintains appropriate records. A minor is optional and, if successfully completed, will be shown on the university transcript in the same manner as the major field.
