

RESOURCES:

Location

Our campus is in the Lehigh Valley, which is comprised of Allentown, Bethlehem and Easton, and the third largest metropolitan area in Pennsylvania. More adventures are also within driving distance, including the 1½-hour trip to New York City and 1-hour trip to Philadelphia.

Housing

If you're planning to apply as a full-time, on-campus graduate student at Lehigh we offer three reasonably priced on-campus options for Graduate Student Housing. (Availability fluctuates.)

Health Insurance

Graduate students can either enroll in a plan offered by the University or submit a waiver (various qualifications must apply).

Transportation

Lehigh offers free on-campus transportation to all students. Lehigh also offers Bike and Care Share programs.

Graduate Life Office

The Graduate Life Office exists to enhance the academic, personal, and professional development of Lehigh graduate students through programs such as Orientation, Cultural Breakfasts, Graduate Student Appreciation Week just to name a few.

Office of International Affairs

The Office of International Affairs drives the university's international strategy, helps students and faculty go abroad, supports international students and scholars, cultivates international partnerships, and oversees areas like the Iacocca Institute and the Lehigh University-United Nations Partnership.
